

Arizona Open Meeting Law

Office of the Governor

- Arizona statutes generally define a quorum as a majority of the members of a board of commission. A.R.S. § 1-216.
- If a quorum of a public body wants to discuss public business within that body's jurisdiction, they must do so during a properly posted meeting.

Types of Communication Subject to Quorum:

- In-Person Meetings
- Phone Calls
- Group Text
- Emails- Do Not Reply All

