

GOVERNOR DUCEY'S 3RD ANNUAL BOOKMARK DESIGN CONTEST: #AMAZINGAZ

Governor Ducey has partnered with the Arizona State fair to launch his 3rd Annual Bookmark Design Contest. Beginning February 7, 2018 Arizona children grades K – 6 are encouraged to design bookmarks showcasing an “Amazing Arizona” theme. The winners of Governor Ducey’s 3rd Annual Bookmark Design Contest will have his/her design reproduced and printed on bookmarks that are distributed to students touring the Arizona State Capitol Executive Tower. Winning bookmarks will also be used as part of the Arizona State Fair’s Read & Ride Program. All winners will be invited to the Executive Tower for a meet and greet with Governor Ducey.

CONTEST RULES:

- One winner will be selected from each of the following grade brackets:
 - K-1 Grades
 - 2-3 Grades
 - 4-6 Grades
- Artwork and information must be completed on the Governor’s Office of Education “Bookmark Template” form (included below).
- The theme for the 2018 contest is “Amazing Arizona,” and all designs must reflect this theme. Participants must include a short description of their illustration, which may be dictated by a parent/teacher if necessary.
- All artwork must be original.
- Contestants must be in grades K – 6.
- Entries should only be submitted on 8 ½” x 11” white paper
